

A Deep-dive into Blibli's Seamless Omnichannel Commerce Journey

About Blibli

Founded in 2011, Blibli is the pioneer and leading omnichannel commerce brand and lifestyle ecosystem in Indonesia, focusing on serving digitally connected retail and institution consumers nationwide.

We wanted to innovate the way we engage with our customers. And MoEngage was more than able to be on-par with our pace of innovation. We are very confident in our long partnership with the Insights-led customer engagement platform

Fanky Mulia,
VP of CLM Marketing, Blibli, Blibli

Business Challenge

Blibli's biggest challenges was to create a seamless shopping ecosystem, whether it's offline or online (Omnichannel) to ensure customers find convenience in shopping with Blibli.

A lot of their customers shop and transact online. Sometimes it so happens that the items purchased don't match their expectation. With the slogan 'Dunia Tanpa Tipu-Tipu' which translates to 'The world without scams', it was important to provide a seamless, contextual, and trust-worthy experience. The strategy was to build trust, in Blibli's platform and original products.

Optimizing anniversary sale to move customers down the funnel

For the Blibli Anniversary Sale, the team used MoEngage to analyze customer behavior, and based on that created segments to engage better.

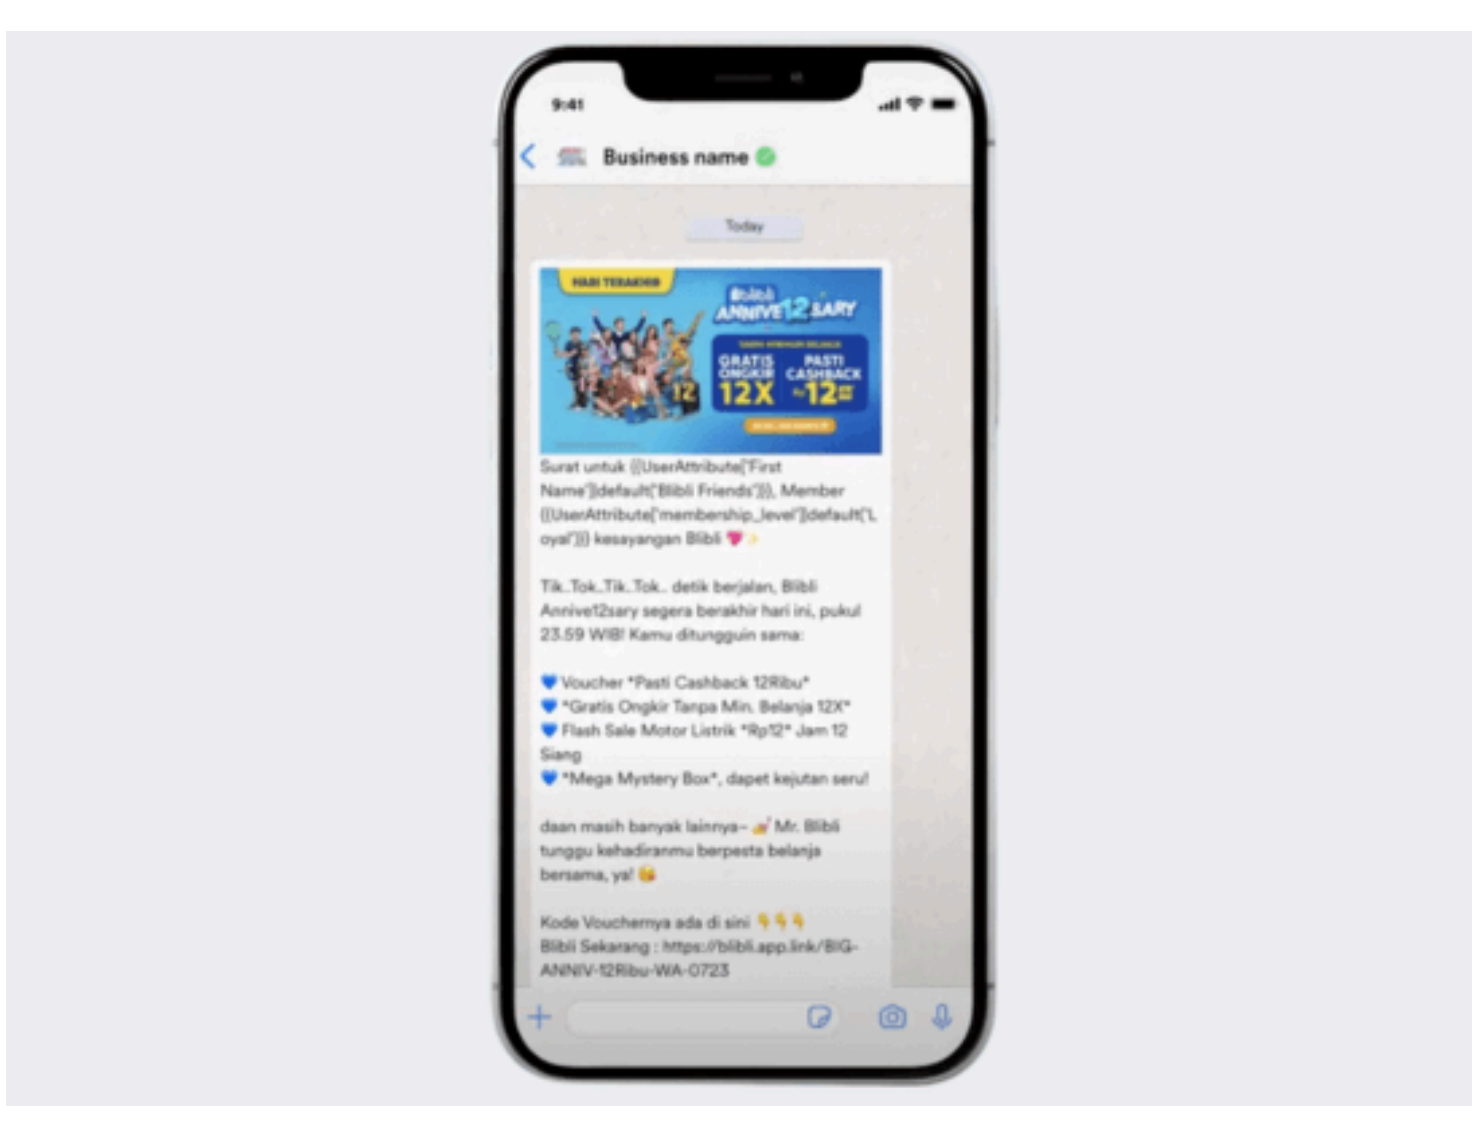

They A/B tested their communication going out to each of these segments and found the best version, which enabled them to meaningfully engage and move customers along the lifecycle journey, ultimately driving loyalty.

Blibli deepens customer understanding and personalizes better, leading to improved loyalty

Blibli strives to invest in human resources and technology, instead of spending money on massive promotions. The purpose is to better understand customers to serve them better in the future and drive utmost customer satisfaction.

This is where MoEngage became a part of the Blibli Martech stack, helping the team reduce a lot of manual intervention and access deeper analysis and actionable insights. With all of resources, including MoEngage, the team was able to increase customer loyalty and aims to continue doing so, much more than before!
